2. ACTIVITIES

2.1. Preparation of Organic Compost During Ganesh Chaturthi

It was high time of Covid 19 Pandemic during Ganesh Chaturthi, just for community involvement and adding few efforts of contribution – the National Service Scheme Unit of Institute of Science, Nagpur hereby declared to be a part by saving the nature.

The volunteers decided to use the mud of the Ganesh idols as a source of good compost leading to fertile soil and they made fertile compost at home itself. The volunteers pledged to celebrate Eco Friendly Ganesh Chaturthi and be a part of it right from buying Eco Friendly Idols to having environmentally friendly Visarjan.

This was all done at home itself due to high times of Covid 19 Pandemic. The role of NSS UNIT of Institute of Science was to create a cleaner and safer world even in the times of covid. The unit tried its best to mark the drive successful and propagated the message of greener world in the society. This drive-in turn abbreviated the students with energy as after a long journey of covid 19 lockdown, they were able to do something for the society and nature and boosted them with enthusiasm.

The Program Officers Prof. Shrikant Borkar and Dr. Nagesh Yemul successfully guided the students for this campaign. The volunteers not only inculcated this message in them- but also layered awareness where ever possible, also encouraging the devotees to celebrate eco-friendly festival. The unit assured of carrying forward this activity ahead too. The NSS Volunteers thus uplifted the mentalities of the people thus moving a step forward in bringing a change in the society and nature.

2.7 CLEANLINESS DRIVE AT INSTITUTE OF SCIENCE

Cleanliness is a need of the hour. Considering the most ambitious mission of India- Swacchh Bharat Abhiyan is too working to make India Clean from all the barriers of dirt.

The mission of India was been to make it one of the cleanest places in the world.

Just to support this idea, the NSS UNIT of Institute of Science has conducted cleanliness drive and the drive that will uphold all the plastic from the areas nearby.

The volunteers cleaned the campus of the college, the area near the Nagpur University and also the market of Burdi and made the areas plastic free. Another motive to clean the areas was to collect the plastic for Eco Bricks Campaign that is being carried out by the NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME OF INSTITUTE OF SCIENCE.

The motive of the campaign was successful proven and all the volunteers thus got more boosted to contributed their shares to save the nature.

2.8 ECO BRICKS CAMPAIGN –

WAY TOWARDS GREENER WORLD

A TARGET OF 1000+ ECO BRICKS ACHIEVED IN A SMALL TIME SPAN

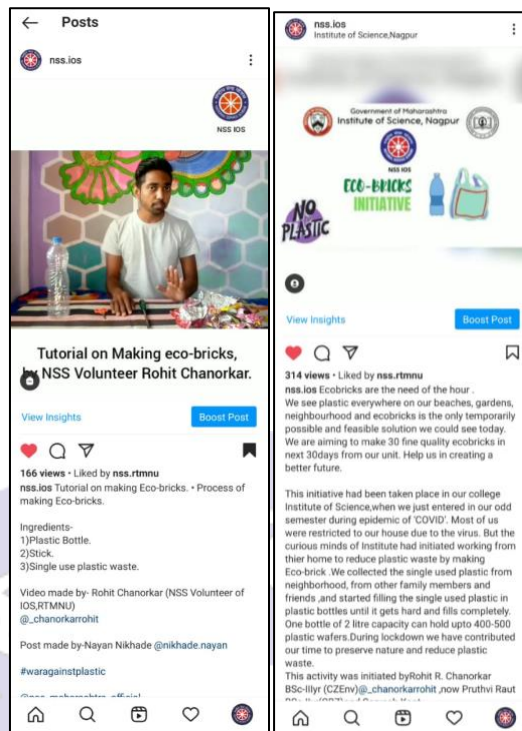

Eco Bricks Campaign is the most fame gaining activity of NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME UNIT OF INSTITUTE OF SCIENCE, NAGPUR.

In the heavy times of covid 19 pandemic, when the world was on the high pages of online network – the NSS Unit of Institute of Science started the campaign and mission to make eco bricks. It was started in August 2020. The idea of making Eco bricks was given by one of the lecturers of Environmental department Jui Pandharipande Ma'am. She put forward the idea and then it was carried on by the NSS Unit of Institute of Science in collaboration with Environmental Science Department of the college.

The entire unit was involved in making this activity a success.

Awareness through Social Media Platform

More to it, on the Instagram page of NSS Institute of Science, all the information of Eco bricks was posted to create and spread the message and bring a change needed. Right from the technique to make Eco bricks to how plastic should be segregated – everything is precisely posted to clarity basis.

SCREENSHOTS OF THE INSTAGRAM PAGE OF NSS INSTITUTE OF SCIENCE

After the reopening of colleges in the month of February 2022, the unit gained a lot of support and encouragement from the volunteers in this activity.

The volunteers collaborated with the vendors staying near their homes, with the stall keepers and medical shop owners to collect Plastic.

The hostel boys collected plastic from the nearby areas and bundled up a lot of plastic collection from the market of Burdi.

The volunteers used to come daily before the classes at 9:00 Am in the morning for the Eco Bricks meet and used to add a lot of Eco Bricks in the sum total.

In a very little time span – the volunteers got a lot of fame and they are able to achieve and make more than 1000+ Eco Bricks within a month.

Few Eco bricks are used to make benches near the library and few for book shelves. Many more to be carried out with the time ahead. The activity is now being carried out in different colleges now due to the workshop taken by the NSS UNIT OF INSTITUTE OF SCIENCE during the NSS SPECIAL CAMP 2022.

WORKSHOP TAKEN BY THE NSS UNIT OF INSTITUTE OF SCIENCE

In the NSS SPECIAL CAMP, on 26th March – the unit organized Eco Bricks Workshop where the activity was made known to many colleges of the Universities and the NGOs.

More than 100 volunteers from different sections were present in the Workshop. The workshop was carried out by lecturer Jui Pandharipande. The workshop was a huge success for one and all.

The main motive to make Eco bricks

Eco Bricks will help to make a proper system to collect the garbage and plastic. Out of the three R's – Reduce, Reuse and Recycle, Eco bricks connectivity will remove the barriers of reduce. It will give rise to an appropriate system of collecting the plastic. In India almost 40% of the plastic is spread all over. So, campaigns like this will surely create a huge difference to minimize the consideration and reduce the plastic waste.

A point to add, many animals will live safer and healthier due to this. Sometimes or the other, the animals gulp the plastic. This is one of measures that will be taken. Pollution will be reduced. Indirectly or directly a lot of good transformations will be seen in the nature.

The basic idea and the main aspect or motive of Eco bricks is to finalize the waste in such a way that it becomes easy to put the plastic waste forward in the process of reuse and recycle.

The NSS Unit of Institute of Science gives you the assurance to work and make efforts on this activity at an inclining pace and will envision to create a better living and a healthier life out of all sorts of dangers.

The program officers – Prof. Shrikant Borkar, Dr. Nagesh Yemul and the volunteers worked increasingly best to make this activity a success for one and all. The Unit will try to take this activity on a higher level with time spreading it on Maharashtra Level.

The Unit once tried to give the proposal to start Eco Bricks Campaign to the Director of Maharashtra NSS – Swapnil Pawar Sir. With the time ahead – the unit will focus on spreading this campaign in all the NSS UNITS of Maharashtra. Eco Bricks Campaign was the most fame gaining activity of the college and the unit will work on it always.
