

Student Co-operative Store

Student Cooperative Store Managed by Institute of Science Employees Cooperative Credit Society Limited, Nagpur

The Institute of Science Employees Cooperative Credit Society Limited, Nagpur, has taken a significant step toward student welfare by running a Student Cooperative Store at two major educational institutions in the city:

1. Institute of Science, Nagpur
2. Vasantrao Naik Institute of Humanities and Social Sciences, Nagpur

Objective of the Student Cooperative Store

The primary aim of this cooperative store is to support students by providing them with essential academic and daily-use items at highly affordable prices. It operates on a non-profit model, ensuring that students have access to necessary materials without financial burden.

Products and Services Offered

The store supplies a variety of items, including:

- Stationery items – Notebooks, pens, pencils, erasers, rulers, and geometry sets.
- Textbooks and reference materials – Academic books, journals, and guides related to various subjects.
- Laboratory materials – Basic lab journals required for practical work.
- General student essentials – Exam pads, calculators, files, folders, and drawing instruments.
- Basic convenience items – Items like water bottles, snacks, and hygiene products.

Key Benefits to Students

- Affordable Pricing – Since the store is operated on a cooperative basis, students can purchase products at lower-than-market rates.
- Convenience – The store is located within the educational institutions, making it easily accessible.
- Quality Assurance – The store ensures that students get genuine and good-quality products.

Management and Operation

- The store is managed by the Institute of Science Employees Cooperative Credit Society Limited, Nagpur.
- Employees of the institute oversee operations, ensuring smooth functioning and proper stock management.
- The cooperative model ensures that any profits earned are reinvested into improving the store or providing additional student support.

This initiative reflects the commitment of the Institute of Science Employees Cooperative Credit Society Limited to the overall well-being of students by ensuring they have access to essential goods at the lowest possible prices.

